

TMC Maintenance Supervision Awards!

Are you a great maintenance supervisor or do you have a great maintenance supervisor working for you?

If so, you or your nominee could win a free trip to Orlando, Florida, to attend TMC's 2009 Annual Meeting and Transportation Technology Exhibition . . .

Who Is Eligible?

- Any truck equipment maintenance supervisor or foreman who works in a shop directly supervising technicians (limited to employees of TMC/ATA member companies only).
- If you are a lead technician, shop superintendent, supervisor or foreman who directs technicians on a day-to-day basis and you have a dedication to excellence, you may find yourself at the Technology & Maintenance Council's 2009 Annual Meeting and Transportation Technology Exhibition in Orlando, Florida.

How to Win

- Write a short letter (500 words or less) explaining why you (or one of your maintenance supervisors if you're a higher level manager) are an excellent truck maintenance supervisor and should be selected as a representative of excellence in maintenance supervision.

- Include copies (They will become the property of TMC and will not be returned) of supporting material such, as certification by the National Committee for Motor Fleet Supervisor Training or ASE, other awards, commendation letters or record of supervisory training courses, etc.

- Complete the entry form below and return by Friday, January 9, 2009.

- Mail application package to:

Technology & Maintenance Council
