

WHAT TO DO IN COLONIAL WILLIAMSBURG

Revolutionary Leadership
2011 TAEC ANNUAL MEETING
Williamsburg, Virginia - July 17-20, 2011

On the hotel property...

300 acres filled with walking trails
Indoor Pool and Outdoor Heated Pool
Bicycle Rentals
Lawn Bowling

Tennis (Providence Hall)
Miniature Golf
Children's Outdoor Play Area

Kids Programs...

Each day there is a host of hotel activities designed just for kids. They can join the colonial militia and prepare to defend the rights of free citizens, act in an 18th-century play, march with the Fifes and Drums, talk to founding fathers, and tend a colonial garden. Costume rentals are available to complete your child's colonial transformation. In the museums, children can learn about and create works of art based on folk art or decorative arts on exhibit.

Colonial Kids Club...

Kids (ages 5–12) staying at Colonial Williamsburg may enjoy a morning, afternoon, or entire day of organized, supervised indoor and outdoor activities. Children will tour Colonial Williamsburg's Historic Area, participate in a variety of arts and crafts, and play 18th-century games such as hopscotch and marbles.

Other things to do in Williamsburg...

Three huge amusement and water parks nearby – Water Country USA, Great Wolf Lodge, and Bear Track Landing
Busch Gardens
Jamestown Settlement/Historic Jamestowne
Bassett Hall
Williamsburg Winery
Abby Aldrich Rockefeller Folk Art Museum
Pirate's Cove Adventure Golf
Spa of Colonial Williamsburg
DeWitt Wallace Decorative Arts Museum

Bruton Parish Episcopal Church
Public Hospital Museum
Williams and Mary College
Freedom Park (biking, hiking and nature trails)
Ripley's Believe It or Not!
Kimball Theatre
Muscarelle Museum of Art
Robertson's Windmill
Go Karts Plus

Childcare

Exciting kids programs are available during evening events including activities and complete supervision for all kids 18 and under. On the free evening (Tuesday), optional group childcare is available. These activities will be tailored to suit the needs of the ages of the kids who register. Please indicate on the registration form (Form A) the names and ages of all children accompanying you.